

MODERN ERA INVENTIONS

Chronological Milestones of Innovation

1876 The Telephone

Alexander Graham Bell patents the first device for transmitting vocal sounds telegraphically.

1879 Incandescent Light Bulb

Thomas Edison perfects a long-lasting electric light source, transforming urban life.

1903 The Airplane

The Wright brothers achieve the first powered, controlled, and sustained flight.

1928 Penicillin

Alexander Fleming discovers the first true antibiotic, revolutionizing modern medicine.

1969 The Internet (ARPANET)

The first message is sent between computers, laying the foundation for the digital age.

2007 The Smartphone

Mainstream adoption of multi-touch interfaces integrates computing into daily mobility.